SHARKHUNTERS

YESTERDAY'S ENEMIES ARE TODAY'S FRIENDS

Relive the History of the German U-Boats and Other Submarine Services of the World

Sharkhunters is the only group of its kind in the world, dedicated to discovering and preserving the history of the submarine services of all nations. Since 1983, Sharkhunters has been the leading authority on the U-Bootwaffe in the Western Hemisphere.

Sharkhunters serves as a consultant to Military Magazine, Navy News, and World War II Magazine. We have thousands of members in 44 countries around the world. Here's what some of them have to say:

"Sharkhunters is doing a great job and has done a lot to promote the history of World War II. Sharkhunters has revealed information never before disclosed until the advent of this organization."

— Bernard Meyer,
U.S. Merchant
Marine veteran

"We've been following the affairs of your remarkable organization here at the National Maritime Historical Society and have heard glowing reports."
— Peter Stanford, President,
National Maritime Historical Society

"I find Sharkhunters interesting. Let's get submarining back to what it truly is: teamwork, persistence, and determination. Keep up the good work. God bless you."
— Eugene Fluckey, Skipper,
U.S.S. Barb

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in Sharkhunters offers several benefits: annual conventions in the U.S. and Europe, expeditions, local meetings, and diving trips. And best of all, membership includes a subscription to the monthly KriegsTageBuch magazine, named after the War Log Book,

Erich Topp,
C.O. of U-552, the Red Devil Boat

which was carried aboard all U-Boats during World War II. The KTB provides members with an accurate history of submarine operations from first-person accounts of the men who actually waged the war at sea...from both sides of the periscope: Otto Kretschmer, top sub commander of World War II; Hans-Georg Hess, youngest combat sub commander of World War II; and Captain

The KTB is a total information source and contains profiles of U-Boats, with the latitude and longitude of almost every U-Boat sunk. We profile veterans from all services and, during our annual conventions and local meetings, you can meet them face to face.

The KTB is used extensively as a reference by many historical groups, including the National Archives and the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.; the Museum of

Otto Kretschmer,
C.O. of U-99

Science and Industry in Chicago; and the U-Boot Veterans Association in Germany.

Current members praise the publication:

“Many thanks for the KTB. Be sure that my best wishes for your health and happiness are on their way across the Atlantic with the velocity of light.”

– Otto Kretschmer, C.O. of U-99

“I am amazed at how much authentic material about German submarines you have collected and catalogued. The KTBs arrive here like clockwork and keep me well informed about past, present, and future.”

– Horst Haslau, Radioman on U-1230

“Thank you for my membership in Sharkhunters and for the KTB magazine. I look forward to receiving future issues.”

– Vice Admiral Chiles (ComSubLant)
