Humorous Themes and Development in Late 20th-Century Digital Literature

(Just ignore the title; I'm gonna try to write this off as a work-in-progress on my Doctoral Dissertation.)

By Al Lowe

Hair has always been one of Larry's downfalls (pun intended!). Follow the numerous references throughout all the games to hair loss, wigs, barbers and baldness. Carefully study my photo on the back of the box. Draw your own conclusions.

Weight loss is another sore point with Larry. Like many of us, he's perpetually fighting his own "battle of the bulge." Again, check my photo. (Where do I get these ideas?)

Note the multiple clever references throughout every game to the ubiquitous Ken (AKA Kenny, Chief Kenneewauwau, etc.) Many reviewers and critics think these are thinly veiled references to Sierra founder and CEO Ken Williams. Preposterous. Others accuse me of "sucking up to the boss." Ridiculous. Some say I have no imagination for names. Possibly. I like to think of it as "one less person that could sue me for using his name!"

Women's names have been another fun point. Since Larry deals with so many women, it quickly became obvious I needed help coming up with fresh, funny names. Larry 1 was produced around the time of the Oliver North hearings, so "Fawn" seemed a natural name for a character. Larry 3 had lots of women so I made their names all end in "I," Bambi, Susi, etc. By Larry 6, I was so desperate I sank to disguising the names of wines: Charlotte Donay, Cavarrichi Vurnet, etc. Fortunately, no one ever noticed.

Another example of evolution is "The Leisure Suit Larry Theme Song." It's especially been fun to hear my little ditty change over the years as each new composer gives it his own treatment. By the way, it is still awaiting lyrics. Submissions will be accepted gladly, but not acknowledged!

Somewhere I read you should never see a movie with a Roman numeral in the title. That's why I've been careful to ensure all the Larry Sequels use Arabic numerals.

Dear Leisure Suit Larry Fan Club Initiate:

Thank you so much for purchasing "The Absolutely Totally Complete & Thorough Compilation of the Life & Times of Leisure Suit Larry Laffer" (or, as we like to call it internally, "Refried Larry"). You'll be proud to learn your purchase qualifies you for a free "International Gold Level" membership in The Official Leisure Suit Larry Fan Club, bringing with it all the rights, privileges, duties, and responsibilities thereinto untoward henceforth.

The good news? No more waiting for us to bill you! From now on, each month you'll just send your $10.00 membership dues to the Fan Club's post office box, and you'll receive one of Leisure Suit Larry's "Special Surprises." (Unmarked bills only, please; no stamps.) We guarantee you'll be surprised, all right!

New OLSLFC members often ask me, "Al, um, how did you, ah, come up with, like, the idea of a, you know, whatayacallit, guy like, ah, Larry Laffer?" To which I always reply, "That's Mr. Lowe to you!"

In truth, the actual story is even more fascinating. Leisure Suit Larry was discovered, lurking inside my brain, fully-formed, waiting, nay struggling to get out, back in the Winter of '87. It only took six months in the delivery room, sitting before a state-of-the-art XT turbo (and some sterile gauze), to loose him upon an unsuspecting planet. (I like to say it was a drug-free, natural birth, but that's only half true.)

You're probably wondering why it took so long to assemble this collection. It's simple: over the years I've been asked to do many Larry collectors' editions, Larry software compilations, Larry souvenir coffee mugs, a line of Larry beach wear, even Larry velvet paintings. But it all seemed so exploitative... That is, until Sierra's founder and CEO, Ken Williams, gave me the chance to produce a collection in the only way I would want it done: "We'll give you a piece of the action," Ken said. The rest is history in your hands.

I truly hope you'll enjoy tracing the development of the modern American kinda-hero, Larry Laffer. Revel in the joy of knowing you have every possible bit of Leisure Suit Larry. Now get out of the house! It's a nice day outside.

Sincerely,
Al Lowe

A Word About the Contents

There are numerous fabulous perks to owning Leisure Suit Larry's Greatest Hits and Misses! If you purchase the collection at full retail, you will notice that your hair gradually stops falling out, your teeth become whiter, and sexy women begin finding your widening paunch an attractive feature. If you and all your friends purchase two copies each, the result will be a stable economy and peace in the Middle East. Oh, yeah, and all the babes that can safely crawl over you at one time.

Not only that, but by purchasing Leisure Suit Larry's Greatest Hits and Misses! you get some fabulous games, from classic to state-of-the-art. Softporn, the text adventure that begat Larry and thrust Sierra On-Line into national prominence, is included. You'll find Larrys 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6. (What's that? Where's Larry 4? That's a whole other story. Write to Al Lowe, care of Sierra's corporate offices, and ask him about it sometime. No, wait. On second thought, DON'T!) You also get a couple of fascinating

Windows video clips about Al. Speaking of Windows, Laffer Utilities for Windows and a Leisure Suit Larry pinball game for Windows are included. Larry's Casino Games are on here too. Even a video and interactive demo of the hilarious comedy-western from Al, Freddy Pharkas, Frontier Pharmacist, is included. In fact, everything Al could force on this CD with only determination, elbow grease, and a plunger, is here.

Another Word About the Contents

Inside this incredible book you will find copies of the original documentation that were actually sold with the first release of these hilarious games. These important pages are full of information and copy protection that are critical to you playing each game. So reference each section VERY CAREFULLY, and DO NOT LOSE, tear, staple or mutilate (Okay, you can mutilate if you want to, please just do it behind closed doors.)

The Evolution of Lizardum Lounge

Times change, technologies change. Back in 1987, when Larry burst upon an unsuspecting and still reeling America, he was a megastud with his dazzling EGA smile and his four pixel leisure suit. As you play the EGA version today, you might find the graphics as dated as the word "groovy," but you should consider the games within context. This collection is an important historical retrospective, at least in Larry's mind! As you travel back through time and technologies, please reflect on the fact that, although every single thing in the world changes, the exception to this rule is that Larry Laffer strikes out in 16-color, chunky graphics just as he does in gorgeous, state-of-the-art, 256-color aromavision.

The point is Sierra's software technology was and is a product of the times. When you play the EGA version of Leisure Suit Larry in the Land of the Lounge Lizards, you might say to yourself: "No music. Bummer." But keep in mind that sound cards weren't even invented when Larry pestered his first virtual woman, so it would've been impossible to hear his offensive come-on. The Collection's older games seem dated because Sierra's commitment to bringing you the latest in computer advancements means the cutting edge of technology keeps moving forward.

Parser vs. Point-and-Click Interfaces

The Parser Interface: Leisure Suit Larry 1, 2, and 3

The Larry series began as did so many other enduring computer classics: with a parser interface. When working with the parser, the player types instructions at the cursor on the screen. If, for example, you'd like Larry to drink poison, you simply type DRINK POISON. If the parser recognizes the words, Larry will comply by drinking the poison. If the parser does not recognize the words, Larry won't comply. In that case you might try different words like DRINK BEVERAGE, CONSUME LIQUID, or even DIE, LARRY, DIE!

The result of Larry's actions may be good or bad. If you type GROPE FRONTAL LOBES and Larry does it, the gropee might enjoy it and want to get better acquainted. But the gropee could also give him a shot to the sternum that kills him deader than disco. In adventure games, you live and die by your decisions.

That's why we have save and restore features. So SAVE OFTEN, and you will avoid potential dead-ends.

Note that the ultimate parser game, Softporn, is included in this collection. Softporn is a text adventure, the precursor to the 3-D adventure game, and responds only to two word sentence structures. Use very simple sentence structure when speaking to this interface: "verb noun" works quite nicely.

Leisure Suit Larry 1, 2, and 3 are parser games. The Larry 1-VGA remake, Larry 5, and Larry 6 utilize the point-and-click interface. Be sure to utilize every entry on the pull-down menus. Al always tries to hide something funny in there.

Icons and Cursors: Larry 1 Remake, 5, and 6

At the top of the screen is an icon bar containing several icons that can be selected to execute the command choices available to you.

To open the icon bar, move the mouse cursor all the way to the top of your screen.

If you are unsure of an icon's purpose, click the HELP symbol (the question mark located at the right end of the icon bar), then click on the icons in question. Leisure Suit Larry

Meet the kind of girl your mother warned you about.

Get into all kinds of hot water.

Find lots of interesting and valuable items to play with.

This place has been the downfall of many a bachelor. Avoid it if you can.

Looking For a Good Time?

Meet Larry. He's just turned 40, and he's still single. If you can get past the glow of his Grecian formula, you can see his hairline beginning to make a hasty retreat from his forehead. Larry's leisure suit is of the highest quality (100% manmade material, permanent press tool). He wears at least 11 gold chains and his freshly-capped teeth could blind you in a bright light. Down at the singles bar he tells the chicks, "Sure, I'm single... I got in a fight with my ol' lady and she threw me out." He doesn't tell them the "ol' lady" was his mom, or that he was 38 at the time.

YEAH, LARRY'S A JERK.

He's the original blind date nightmare. The kind of guy you wouldn't want your daughter to date, let alone meet. But he's also the unlikely "hero" of this new 3-D Animated Adventure Game from the makers of the King's Quest series.

3-D EQUALS DANCING, DRINKING AND DAMES!

Become the loveable nerd Larry for one fabulous night. You'll dance. You'll drink. You'll gamble. And, if you play your cards right, you might even meet the girl (or girls) of your dreams. The Leisure Suit Larry is a humorous, harmless endeavor for adults. The object of the game is to help Larry overcome his jermisms and lose his "you-know-what." It's a silly, risqué romp through the singles scene and a challenging adventure game that will test your street smarts and suave sophistication. So, slip into your leisure suit and venture out into "the land of the lounge lizards." We guarantee it'll be a night you will never forget.

A New 3-D Animated Adventure Game featuring:

- Animated characters that come alive; they walk, talk, lounge, and even ignore your best pick up lines — just like in real life.
- Incredible three-dimensional graphics; move your animated Larry character in front of speeding cabs, into hot tubs, and smoothly around the disco floor — other onscreen characters do the same and more.
- Communicate using full sentence input and optional joystick. The game understands over 900 words (including some of your four-letter favorites).

The first Larry adventure!

Leisure Suit Larry: In the Land of the Lounge Lizards

This is the original that started it all. In a time when "humorous computer game" was an oxymoron and risqué material was a lo-res low-cut neckline, LSLITLOTLL (or "Leisure Suit Larry in the Land of the Lounge Lizards" as it's called around here) created quite a stir among computer users. Released with no publicity or advertising, it was deemed unacceptable by many of the large computer chain stores that were Sierra's principal retailers back then. First month sales were the lowest of any Sierra game in years. But, as word-of-mouth spread, sales picked-up month after month until it eventually earned Software Publishers' Association coveted Platinum Award for sales of 250,000.

At the SPA's very first awards night, it was named "Best Fantasy, Role Playing or Adventure Game of 1987."

All this for a game entirely created by two people (Mark Crowe, see The Space Quest Collection, and me) in a period of a few months. Mark did all the background art plus all the animation in a period of four weeks, while continuing to work 40 hours/week on Space Quest II, his real job at the time! I feel safe in bragging for Mark: this is a record that will never be broken!

...the idea of asking a woman out was, basically, terrifying.

Programmed by Al Lowe
Graphics by Mark Crowe
Original game design by Chuck Benton
Documentation by John & Jerry Albright

He's changed a lot over the years!

This is what Larry Laffer used to look like (pathetic, isn't it?). Notice the receding hairline and expanding waist. The cardigan sweater and pocket protector give you a pretty good idea of what is — a totally mild and lazy guy.

The "old" Larry Laffer was a confirmed bachelor. At 38 years old, he still lived with his mother, and the idea of asking a woman out was, basically, terrifying. He felt more comfortable at night curling up with a good book (his favorite, "Know Your RS-232 Serial Port"), and listening to his record collection, which absolutely reeked of Air Supply and Barry Manilow records.

Then one day it hit him. Larry realized that his opportunity to live was passing by faster than an ugly woman on the way to her wedding. So he decided to change. "No more Mr. Nice Guy!" he shouted. "It's time to party!"

The game's parser (the code that recognizes what you type) sometimes surprises even me: during a demo of the product before a conference room filled with Hollywood big-wigs trying to understand what was all this fuss about computer games, I showed them around the first few scenes in the game, then foolishly asked for suggestions of commands to type into the game. One was shouted, "Masturbate!" to a roomful of groans. Not knowing what would happen, I typed as instructed, to which the game replied, "The whole idea was to stop doing that, Larry!" The room cracked up!

One afternoon, on my way home from the ol' digital foundry, I realized our new game had no title song. So I sat down at my trusty synthesizer and knocked out a catchy little ditty before dinner. We were always going to go back and replace it with something good, but the damn thing caught on and by then it was too late! (It took five years before someone pointed out to me I stole the bridge from Fiddler on the Roof. Sorry, Mr. Herman!) Regardless, it is fun to hear people whistling it whenever a new Larry game comes out.

—A.L.

This is the new Larry Laffer. Underneath all the polyester and gold, he is still the same weenie he always was, but after a credit card blitz at the Night Fever Polyester Plaza Larry is equipped for a night on the town. Notice the solid white leisure suit, genuine gold-lacquered chains, the "steppin' out" elevator shoes and the "Saturday Night Fever" style bouffant haircut (guaranteed to get the chicks — by the truckload). A few nights at the Disco On Fire Health Club and Dance Spa has given Larry new confidence, new grace, and a 360-degree move that has to be seen to be believed.

Now Larry Laffer has landed in Lost Wages for one fabulous evening. Watch out world, here he comes.

AN OVERVIEW

A Sierra 3-D Animated Adventure Game, simply stated, is an interactive movie where you become the main character. In this game, the main character is "Leisure Suit" Larry Laffer, a would-be man-about-town and exceptionally mild and lazy guy. The "movie" takes place in the fictional town of Lost Wages.

Each 3-D Animated Adventure Game has a main goal, and yours in Leisure Suit Larry in the Land of the Lounge Lizards is to find and seduce the girl of your dreams. This goal won't come easy, because you only have one night, and unfortunately, you are stuck with Larry's looks. Other problems, such as lack of money, lack of opportunity, and bad breath can complicate things significantly. Your interaction with the game controls the outcome of each situation.

For example, having your character sign on with a major league baseball team or start a successful men's magazine could be beneficial to your ultimate goal. On the other hand, catching a fatal disease or losing all your cash can only impede your progress.

A combination of common sense, logical thinking, and downright sheer luck is needed to achieve your goal. Good luck.

TIPS FOR NEW ADVENTURE PLAYERS

NOTE: IF YOU HAVE PLAYED AN ANIMATED ADVENTURE BEFORE, THIS SECTION CAN BE SKIPPED.

1. HOW TO MOVE AROUND

Basic instructions on how to interact with this game are included on the command card enclosed. If you are not sure of what to do, follow the WALK THRU at the end of this manual.

2. IT PAYS TO USE PROTECTION

Due to the dangerous nature of this (and every) adventure game, you will want to type SAVE GAME many times during a playing session. Type SAVE GAME any time you have done something important. Type SAVE GAME when you feel you're in danger.

RESTORE GAME is used when you were right, and there was danger. If you get killed, type RESTORE GAME rather than starting over. Careful and diligent use of this function has saved many an adventurer from frustration and impotence.

(For more on save and restore game, see Reference Card enclosed.)

3. LOOK AT EVERYTHING

When you enter a room type LOOK AT THE ROOM. When you enter a street, type LOOK AT THE STREET. When you want to talk to a woman, type TALK TO THE WOMAN. The descriptions and close-ups offered may provide valuable clues.

4. PLAY WITH A FRIEND

When it comes to playing Leisure Suit Larry, more heads are better than one. You may find it very helpful, and more fun, to go through this game with a friend.

5. A FEW CHOICE WORDS

This 3-D Animated Adventure Game understands a number of verbs such as:

BLOW UP	EAT	ORDER
BUY	GET	READ
CHANGE	GIVE	TAKE
COUNT	JUMP	UNDRESS
CUT	KISS	USE
DRINK	LOOK	WEAR
DROP	OPEN

Naturally, not all of these words are understood in every situation. (This is graphic adventure after all), nor will these words all fit into one sentence, but you can string these words into commands such as "COUNT THE MONEY" and "USE THE KINKY DEVICE."

6. YOU'VE GOT TO BE OPEN MINDED

If it's silly, rude, dirty or funny, Al Lowe and Mark Crowe probably thought of it when they were writing this program. Some of the puzzles in this game may require deranged thinking to solve.

You should try anything you can think of. After all, no one ever got a social disease from a keyboard, and you have your RESTORE GAME function if things really backfire on you.

7. IF YOU STILL CAN'T FINISH

Feeling frustrated? Can't finish what you started? Is your wife making fun of you?

Even the best adventurers sometimes can't complete their tasks. (For text adventure players, this is almost a chronic disorder.)

Thanks for all of the 3-D Animated Adventure Games you've played.

Dear Mr. Laffer,

Frankly, I'm puzzled.

I don't understand why you haven't responded to the FABULOUS offer we recently made you!

Let's face it, Lawrence. Men have it rough in today's world. What with the so-called "Women's Liberation" movement, it's getting harder and harder. To find a suitable mate. Even for fabuloso, studly, sensitive guys like yourself, Lawrence.

But we want you to know that WE appreciate your finer qualities. After all, you're in the full flower of your manhood...a young, active 40 years old (barely out of your teens!). We know that you've got a solid, established career as a traveling software salesman and make more than $ n/a a year. You've resided in one of America's finer neighborhoods, Anytown, for 40 years...long enough to have established a reputation as a adequate credit risk.

So why WOULDN'T any woman leap at the chance to throw herself on your strapping, muscular 65" frame?

We'll tell you why. They WOULD! But it's so hard to MEET the kind of woman you deserve!

That's why we know you'll JUMP at the chance to be included in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity...an opportunity to have YOUR face and YOUR vital statistics included in what's sure to be this year's most sought-after book: WHOSE WHOM IN SINGLE MEN In The Southwestern United States.

Imagine, women all over the country will be receiving this volume of the Southwestern United States's most-eligible bachelors. And not just ANY women, Lawrence. The kind of women we know that YOU like, women with the medium handfuls you've told us you so love to look at...to touch...to nuzzle! Single, attractive, available women with any length legs, beautiful clean hair and yes derrieres.

Don't waste another minute, Lawrence! Fill out the form at the bottom of this page and include your check or money order (or just use your none credit card). And you'll be on your way to a lifetime of babes!

"It's a nerd! It's a shame! It's Leisure Suit Larry! ...Now that's entertainment!"
--Bob Lynstrom, A+ Magazine

Who is Leisure Suit Larry?

If you look up the word "nerd" in the dictionary, you're liable to find a picture as a definition. Leisure Suit Larry is the kind of guy you see in just about every seamy magazine. He wears a white leisure suit with the shirt open to the waist (lots of gold chains make up for the lack of a chest). If you can get past the glow of his Grecian formula, you can see that his hairline is making a hasty retreat from his forehead.

Larry is the original blind date nightmare: the kind of guy you wouldn't want your daughter to date, let alone meet. He is such a loser that Cosmo Magazine recently voted him "most negligible bachelor of the year."

A Time Magazine article on "The War Between the Sexes" carried his picture with the caption "an unmarried innocent in slippers."

Why is Larry suddenly so popular with the ladies?

On cruise ships, in laid-back L.A. Angeles, and in other exotic locations, Larry is suddenly attracting the attention of all kinds of noble nymphettes. He's been propositioned by a bikini babe in the gossip-deck pool, suffered the seductions of a sadomasochistic samurai, even played "make the monkey" with a sexy Spanish señorita.

Why is it that some of the loveliest ladies in the western hemisphere are so hot to get their hands on Larry...and why is he resisting their advances? Why is it that Larry has suddenly started looking only for Miss "Right" (as opposed to Miss "Right Now") and will he find her? Find out why when you play.

LOOKING FOR LOVE IN SEVERAL WRONG PLACES

After software designer Al Lowe introduced the original Leisure Suit Larry in the Land of the Lounge Lizards to the world in 1987, we asked ourselves "Just how low will Al Lowe go?" Play Looking for Love in Several Wrong Places and find out!

Leisure Suit Larry 2: Leisure Suit Larry Goes Looking for Love (In Several Wrong Places)

Realizing we had a winning character in Leisure Suit Larry, but being so sensitive to "prevailing community standards" (i.e., some stores wouldn't sell Larry 1 because it was too nasty!), I decided to clean up Larry 2 by having Larry search for his One True Love instead of just cheap sex. Our loyal customers complained, "Where's the smut?!" Plus, those same stores didn't sell this game because it must be dirty like that first game!

So I learned another important lesson: sex sells!

Actually, I think Larry 2 is a really good adventure game, better puzzles, more logical than Larry 1, with some wonderful running gags. Our development system finally allowed us to store and re-use strings (oops, I mean "typed phrases"). So I included an item on the pull-down menu bar called "Trite Phrase," then had as many of the game's characters use the phrase you typed in as much as possible. Be sure to enter your favorite immediately. We even ran a contest on CompuServe, offering a free T-shirt to the person submitting the best trite phrase. The winner? "Do ya want some fries with that?" submitted by Josh Mandel, who parlayed that one-liner into a steady gig at Sierra and eventually became my co-writer on Freddy Pharkas, Frontier Pharmacist.

Larry 2 was designed to be playable from six 360K floppies (raise your hand if you remember those!), so it consisted of six areas, all distinct and playable by themselves, with no way to go back to a previous area, or forward to an area not yet seen. (Be sure to pick up everything you need before you leave L.A.!)

This game began the running jokes about Larry's de-evolving hairline. There must be a half-dozen barbers in the game, each of which humiliates Larry in some fashion. (See Page 1, Humorous Themes and Developments in Late 20th-Century Digital Literature.)

Larry 2 was also the beginning of my long collaboration with Bil "Missing L" Skirvin, the perfect art director. Bil loved to hide strange and often obscene things in background drawings. Be sure not to look too closely at any of these pictures or you might lose your L too!

I had great plans for a big finale to this game, but by the time we got around to programming the end of the game we were out of disk space (not to mention time), so much of the ending scene is on "auto-pilot." At least I got to introduce Passionate Patti, who would return to play a major role in the next two games.

Warning: Be especially careful of the parser when you reach the top of the volcano near the end of the game. A subtle bug was introduced the night before we shipped that requires the word "The" be used in your typing. So where you could normally get by with typing a phrase like, "Put bottle in bag," here you must type, "Put the bottle in the bag" instead. I didn't catch the bug because my goal was to make those games recognize complete proper English sentences instead of "adventure game-ese" shorthand. The bug was fixed shortly after the game shipped, but to the best of my knowledge, Sierra never got around to updating the shipping version. Oh, well.

AN OVERVIEW

A Sierra 3-D Animated Adventure Game, simply stated, is an interactive movie where you become the main character. In this game, the main character is "Leisure Suit" Larry Laffer, a would-be man-about-town with a receding hairline and no redeeming social values.

Each 3-D Animated Adventure Game has a goal, and as Larry, yours is a very special one.

You see, Larry has been single for a long, long time. Life as a swinging single has been unfulfilling (and unsuccessful). It's time to find a long term relationship. Someone with whom to spend his declining (and receding) years.

Leisure Suit Larry is looking for the holy grail of the singles bar scene. Larry is looking for the girl of his dreams, his soul mate, his long term relationship!

LEISURE SUIT LARRY GOES LOOKING FOR LOVE! (In Several Wrong Places)

3. ACCESSING SPECIAL OPTIONS (Pull down menus)

Sierra 3-D Animated Adventures feature an array of special options designed to enhance your gaming experience. These options are available by accessing the pull down menus at the top of the game screen. On most machines, use the ESCAPE (ESC) key and direction keys or the joystick or mouse.

4. SAVING AND RESTORING A GAME IN PROGRESS

Every Sierra game product offers a special save and restore game feature. Saving a game is much like putting a bookmark in a book. Your position in the game, including your location, your possessions, and your total point score, is saved to disk for future use. You may use this option whenever you want to take a break from playing your game, or whenever you are about to do something you think you might regret later.

A wise adventurer saves his game often. The world of Leisure Suit Larry is filled with potentially lethal situations. Whenever you get killed, locked up in prison for life, or otherwise stopped in your quest, you can restore your game to a past bookmarked point and proceed in your adventure again. For more information on save and restore functions, consult your reference card.

HOW TO INTERACT WITH THIS COMPUTER GAME

1. HOW TO MOVE AROUND

Identify your character onscreen (he's the balding nerd in the white leisure suit). You can move Larry through use of a joystick, mouse, the numeric keypad or direction keys on your computer. Check your reference card for full details.

If Larry bumps into anything (barstool, girl, etc.) he will stop. You must maneuver around the object. When Larry reaches the edge of any screen, a new scene will be loaded from the floppy or hard disk. If Larry reaches the edge of a screen and a new screen is not loaded, you have reached a boundary of the adventure game world. An example of this is to try to go left or down from the opening screen of the game.

2. HOW TO CONVERSE WITH THE GAME TEXT MESSAGES (from the computer)

Throughout your adventure, the computer will tell you about the situation you are in than would normally meet the eye. This text comes up in a message window on your computer screen. To clear a message from the screen, press ENTER or the mouse or joystick button.

TEXT ENTRY (your input to the game)

When you want to do something, such as "talk to the cute receptionist," or "get the handcuffs," type simple, complete English sentences. A dialog box will appear when you start to type. Press ENTER when your instructions are complete. For more information, see your reference card under the headings WINDOWS and INTERACTING WITH THE GAME and TIP #4 under TIPS FOR NEW ADVENTURERS.

SPECIAL TIPS FOR BEGINNING ADVENTURERS

1. LOOK AT EVERYTHING

Every time you reach a new screen in your game, type "Look at the scene." Look at everything you can identify in each screen.

For instance, in a bathroom you would "Look at the room" then "Look in the mirror," "Look at the sink," "Look at the toilet" and even "Look in the toilet." (Yuck!)

The descriptions you get when you look at things can give you valuable clues that will help you in the game and can sometimes be very funny too!

2. KEEP AN EYE ON YOUR INVENTORY

Adding items to your inventory (collecting things you find as you play) is a major part of any adventure game. You never know when a rope, a shoe string or even a banana peel can come in handy.

When you find something that you think might be useful, type "GET THE" If you can't get the item you are trying to get, the game will tell you.

Sometimes, the game will allow you to pick up things that could be detrimental to your progress. If, for example, all the characters in the game begin running from you with their hands on their noses, you may want to drop that rotting fish you found on the seashore.

3. PLAY WITH A FRIEND

When it comes to playing adventure games, more heads are better than one. You may find it very helpful (and more fun) to play this game with a friend.

4. A FEW CHOICE WORDS

This 3-D Animated Adventure Game understands a wide variety of verbs, such as:

5. YOU'VE GOT TO BE OPEN-MINDED

If it's silly, rude, dirty or funny, Al Lowe probably thought of it when he was designing this game. Some of the puzzles in this game require deranged thinking to solve.

When confronted with a problem in the game, try anything and everything. After all, no one ever got a social disease from their keyboard, and you have your RESTORE GAME function if things really backfire on you.

6. IF YOU STILL CAN'T FINISH

Feeling frustrated? Can't seem to finish what you start? Is your wife making fun of you?

Even the best adventure gamers sometimes can't complete their tasks.

Are you a smooth, suave, single guy on the make, or maybe you fancy yourself the sleek, sexy femme fatale? Whoever you are, get ready for a look at the other side of life. In Sierra's latest 3-D adventure, Leisure Suit Larry III: Passionate Patti in Pursuit of the Pulsating Pectorals, you're BOTH!

...you'll get dumped by your woman and lose your job at Natives, Inc. What better reason to take off into the steamy jungle ruled by Amazon cannibal women.

Larry's in for the adventure of his life with the woman of his dreams in hot pursuit.

AS PATTI

...you'll follow Larry's trail deep into the overgrown jungle. Find your lover, and rescue him from a life of sex slavery at the hands of the man-eating cannibal Amazon women who have taken him prisoner.

Passionate Patti: on a quest for the man that got away!

A GAME OF DOUBLE IDENTITY

Leisure Suit Larry III is the first Sierra game ever to allow you to switch roles and see the story from another point of view. In our first ever role-switching adventure, you'll experience a new dimension of computer adventure. Become Larry, trying to find himself in the jungles of Nontoonyt Island, and Passionate Patti, searching for the man of her dreams (who seems to have dropped off the face of the earth).

Larry's search for the perfect mate will reveal many things.

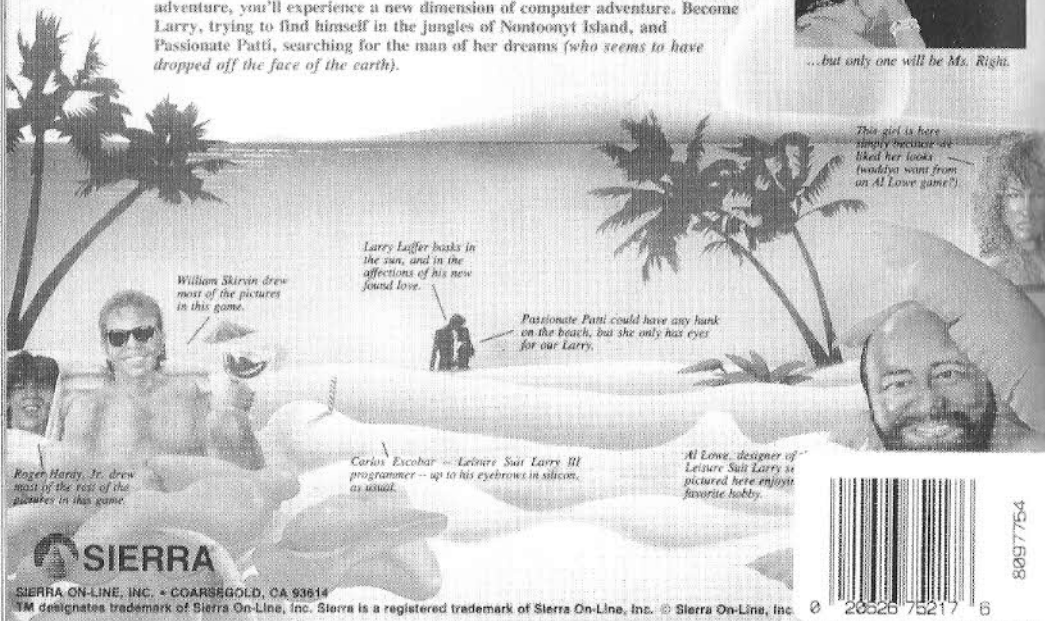

He'll meet dozens of beautiful girls.

...but only one will be Ms. Right.

This girl is hot simply because we liked her looks (waddy want from an Al Lowe game?)

William Skirvin drew most of the pictures in this game.

Larry lazes back in the sun, and in the affections of his new found love.

Passionate Patti could have any hand on the beach, but she only has eyes for our Larry.

Leisure Suit Larry 3: Passionate Patti in Pursuit of the Pulsating Pectorals

The end of "The Larry Trilogy," I fully intended the series to stop with this game. In fact, during the last month of development, I remember someone asking me, "What are you going to do for Larry 4?" to which I replied, "Nothing! There's never going to be a Larry 4!!" Pretty damn prophetic, eh?

By this time, no one was playing from floppies any more, so we demanded a hard disk. Still, the entire game fits in under 4 megabytes.

This game saw the addition to the Larry gang of Carlos Escobar and Roger Hardy, both of whom were dumb enough to work with me again in the future. Carlos had an honorary cameo role in Larry 2 as the brother of the ship's maid. You only saw him if you typed something nasty when the maid was in the room, so I'm sure most of you never saw him.

Going Native
with Uncle Carlos

This Week:
Native Crafts of Nontoonyt

From the time of the earliest Nontoonyt natives, island grasses have been used for a variety of useful and durable items. The island Community Center offers lessons, with new classes starting every month.

GRASS WEAVING

Suitable grass once grew in many places on the island, but is now scarce. The illustrations below show one of the more popular patterns favored by traditional weavers, in three easy-to-follow steps. Try it -- it's fun!

LEI-MAKING

The art of making leis has been popular on the island since ancient times, but has changed little. All one needs is a dozen or so flowers. Lei classes are available at the Nontoonyt Community Center, check the Community Calendar for dates and times.

WOODCARVING

Woodcarving is another ancient Nontoonyt craft -- in fact, the island is known far and wide for its unique wooden sculptures, and tourists come from miles around to buy them from native vendors. If you don't want to spend up to $20 for such a sculpture, you might want to try carving your own. Granadilla wood is another item that isn't as plentiful as it once was on Nontoonyt, but if you can find it, it's free for the taking. The best pieces even seem to suggest the shapes they will take under the carver's knife. If you decide to carve your own, you'll want to check the Community Center for the dates and times of their Wood Carving classes.

If you do decide to buy a genuine native sculpture, watch out for phony 'Native Vendors' on the local beaches. Many of these are not Nontoonyt natives at all, but phonies dressed in traditional native clothing in order to make a sale, and their 'genuine souvenirs' usually turn out to be nothing more than cheap imitations. The ancient islanders had some fascinating uses for these oddly-shaped sculptures; for instance, single women (cont. on pg 118)

DINING OUT

By Yahoo Arias

Since is gala premiere in 1988. The Sand Crab Room at the Nontonyt Casino has been, in this reviewer's opinion, synonymous with elegant dining. Consider such culinary rituals as the Friday Buffet featuring Pearl Pig at Orange, Pearl Pig Under Glass, even Pearl Pig Turtleneck. Presiding over this opulent dining experience is Chef Sami, a French native whose distinguished career includes 22 years on Devil's Island. Featuring noir gauche decor and nightly entertainment, you'll find that the sophisticated ambience of the Sand Crab Room more than makes up for the exorbitant prices. *****

For a more casual dining experience, try Country Roy's Bamboo Gracch. Specializing in such wonders of the Orient as Pearl Pig Chow Yau, Pork Fat Sub Gum and Country Roy's own X-rated fortune cookies. ****

Freddi's Pearl Bar & Q located downtown features an All-U-Can-Stomach luncheon special, which is probably even worth the $2.50 price, if you count the bottomless trough of Bone Whiz Ale. ***

An experience to be missed is the Pearl Pigs-In-A-Blanket at Pigg's 24 Hour Coffee Shop. Even Pigg's 24 hour coffee can't help these hapless huns. *

* = Your dog wouldn't eat here.
 = Your dog would eat here, but I wouldn't.
 = Tolerable; your dog and I do lunch here.

HIGHLIGHTS Featuring Paul Paul

Rising young comedian Paul Paul of Oakhurst, California is now appearing at The Comedy Hut for a special two week engagement. I spoke with Paul recently between shows and he told me a little about his humble beginnings in show business. Born Melvin Melvin in 1964 to Melba and Marvin Melvin of Gary, Indiana, it was soon apparent that Paul was not like other children. In fact, most other children weren't even allowed to play with him. At age 14, Paul entered Gary High School, where he was soon dubbed 'The Hung-Garyan' by classmates in the locker room. Paul refused further comment on the unusual nickname.

When he was 18, Paul entered the family business -- Melvin's Discount Mortuary 'in the beautiful Downtown Gary Mall', founded in 1893 by brothers Morton and Myron Melvin. During lunch hours and coffee breaks, Paul began to conceive his first comic routine. Unfortunately, he delivered it during a eulogy. This incident cost Paul his position at M.D.M., but revealed to him his true calling in life. At age 18.5, Paul began a new life in Oakhurst, California as a night club entertainer playing such exclusive establishments as Sierra Lanes, The Caddy Shack Lounge and Oakhurst Funeral Chapel.

Off The Beaten Trail

with your native guide,
Jungle Joe

As a native of this beautiful island, I am always so pleased when our visitors are wishing to explore its lovely jungles. But take warning, you silly stranger, there is much to be knowing about this island, and much to beware! Many have come to me for counsel and have lived to take another foolish photograph. Of those who are not heeding my words, most are so much pig slop on the jungle floor. Young Judi escaped this doom. Lucky she be listen to me all these years. You can read about her in this issue also, mon.

Now hear me, newcomer: when you go into the jungle, you be taking plenty of fresh water so you aren't drying up like an old prune. Beware the wild creatures who are wanting to eat you or kill you for sport. In the jungle, a harmless vine is becoming a snake, the rock a poisonous lizard with teeth 6 inches long! A harmless mud puddle may be deadly quicksand, you know? Don't worry that the Feral Pigs be sneaking up on you -- they will be attacking you in a sincere and straightforward manner.

Now I must tell you how easily you are getting lost in our dense jungles and bamboo forests. If you wander into the bamboo, it may be you never come out again. If this happens, I hope you picked lots of juicy Nontoonyt Nectarines to nourish you. Maybe you'll just fall off a big cliff and die, mon.

I always tell visitors about the unlucky traveler who was impaled upon (cont. page 192)

FERAL PIGS ATTACK ANOTHER VILLAGER
Native villager Judi gets porked

NPI: In yet another near-tragic episode, native villager Judi was assaulted by Feral Pigs in an area of the Nontoonyt jungle known to be thick with the wild creatures. Through the use of her keen wit and available resources, Judi escaped with minor injuries. When asked why she ventured into this hazardous region, Judi replied, "Because it was there."

Leisure Suit Larry 4: The Missing Floppies

What is the truth about why I skipped Larry 4? Was I trying to catch up with the Space Quest guys? Nah. Did I write a game too dirty to ship? No. Were the floppies really stolen by Broderbund and released as "Where in the hell is Leisure Suit Larry?" NO!

—A.L.

Leisure Suit Larry 5: Passionate Patti Does a Little Undercover Work

Dating from my "Hey! I've got it! People really want games that are like little movies!" period, Larry 5 was generally considered funny with a good plot, but resoundingly disliked by computer game magazine reviewers and professional game players as too easy. On the other hand, most "normal" people I've talked with said it was the only one of the games they could finish. Go figure.

Larry 5 was my first game (but not the last) to make use of the Bodily Function Keys. For a demonstration, just press the unused function keys on your keyboard (try F10 to start). We added these about three days before we shipped because it was late at night, we were tired, we were high on caffeine and pizza, we were all Letterman fans, it seemed like a good idea at the time, and we could. Not even the game reviewers noticed.

This game introduced the "new look" of Larry: more modern, angular, artistic. We call it, "whacked out!" It gives the game a fun feeling, even when nothing funny is happening.

If you forget your password, or never even entered one, and yet the game insists you need one, do this: Find the sub-directory where the game is installed (probably C:\SIERRA\LSL5) and delete the file "MEMORY.DRV." That's where we hid the password. (Pretty sneaky, eh?)

—A.L.

SEX, THUGS AND ROCK 'N ROLL. They're back in their silliest, sexiest adventure ever. Larry teams up with Passionate Patti for a rollicking gender-bending romp through the sleazy underside of the underworld.

SWITCH SEXES ON THE FLY. Yes, every time you take a plane ride, you'll switch back and forth between Larry and Patti. Double the trouble, double the fun!

IT'S LARRY & PATTI vs. A GALLERY OF GOONS. Passionate Patti is a fledgling spy for the FBI, sent to ferret out corruption in the music industry. Larry, cult-hero of the computer age and certified fashion disaster, is auditioning hostesses for TV's syndicated steam-fest, America's Sexiest Home Videos. But watch out! The Mob wants to get pornography off the air and back onto their balance sheet. Help Larry and Patti take on organized crime, the FBI, and the Citizens Against Nearly Everything in their spiciest computer caper yet.

FANTASTIC FEATURES:

- Original score by Hollywood composer Craig S. Katz.
- Emmy-nominated.
- Composer for the Cheers TV show.
- Composer of movie scores for The Last Starfighter, A Nightmare on Elm Street 4, and many other films.
- Hand-painted digitized graphics in fabulous full color (including several of your favorite flesh tones).
- No-typing "grope and click" interface for quick-learn, one-hand action scoring.
- Our most amazing and outrageous animation ever.

What does Larry say when he answers the phone?
AL LOWE? STATUE?

Game designer Al Lowe denies our allegations that he and Larry are one and the same. Al is a former school administrator and jazz musician who regularly practices safe sax. Larry is every girl's nightmare. We rest our case.

Passengers are limited to 3 articles of baggage: 1 (1) carry-on which must be no larger than 24"x18"x20" to fit beneath the seat or in the overhead compartment and containing no more than 2 (2) magazines, 1 (1) mini-pack of tissues, which will no doubt end up stuffed into the seat pocket in front of you or jammed permanently into the little ashtray set into the armrest, 4 (four) snack items including half-melted chocolate bars, stale peanuts, or roll candy marked up to five times its usual street price by greedy and unscrupulous airport concession owners, 1 (1) paperback novel of up to 1000 pages, either Stephen King or Robert Ludlum (no V.C. Andrews, Anne McCaffrey or Louis L'Amour), up to 10 (10) rolls of film and/or 10 (5x2) computer diskettes, all destroyed by repeated passes through the X-ray machine by cavalier and hole-in-the-you security personnel just DYING to inconvenience you to the maximum extent of the law, pen and pencil for filling out the crossword puzzle in the in-flight magazine (said crossword puzzle already having been 99% solved by the last ilk who didn't take the magazine with him), assorted analgesics (buffered or unbuffered), chewing gum in order to instinctively combat the physical agony of changes in air pressure, causing your head to apparently swell to several times its original size as your eardrums bulge painfully outward until they begin to dislodge from your ear canals, address book with the phone numbers of the people you're supposed to call when you arrive at your destination and find that nobody's there to meet you, and your ticket stub to show to the idiot who waltzes down the aisle and accuses YOU of sitting in HIS seat, only to find that he has the seat NEXT to you instead (his mistake, and does he even bother to apologize? Well, yes, but it doesn't make YOU feel any better for having been embarrassed in public like that), and you can just bet he'll be picking his nose in his sleep throughout the flight, tipping over until his disgusting cheek is pressing against your shoulder, but you can't wake him or else he'll want to talk to you and ask "So, where are you going?" or other ludicrously obvious questions; 2 (to) pieces of checked baggage which may or may not be pretentiously labeled with the name of some clothing or perfume designer who's under the delusion that he or she knows the first thing about what makes for intelligently designed luggage, and insurable in case of loss by somebody other than this airline who might be willing to give you two cents on the dollar for your so-called estimation of the value of your belongings, which is sure to be at least twice their actual value but who cares, we're an airline, we can afford it, isn't that what you're thinking, but the truth is we're as close to bankruptcy as any of the other major airlines that've gone down the toilet in the past few years (ever since that splendid deregulation the government thought would be so lovely), and containing at least one (won) nice suit just in case you get to go to a good restaurant or a show, but you probably won't, which is just as well since the suit doesn't fit particularly well ever since you gained back that 7 (seven) pounds you spent last year trying to work off, two (two) pairs of good shoes which you just know are going to end up giving you blisters when you find yourself wearing them 14 (fourteen) hours a day instead of just to (2) dinner or cocktails like you originally thought, one (the loneliest number) sweater which won't be enough when the temperature drops to a new all-time low, even though your friends assured you that all you need would be maybe one light jacket and oh, be SURE to bring plenty of shorts and bathing suits because... it's supposed to be very warm all week, shows how much they know, doesn't it, and one (one) pair of headphones stolen from your last flight, but of course weren't you surprised when you got home and found they're not really headphones at all, they're just hollow plastic tubes that direct the sound towards your ears, so you don't really need them in the first place, you could have just turned the volume up all the way and squirmed down in your seat and put your ear near the two little holes and listened to the whole movie for free, but no, you stole the cheap headphones and you'd better be discreet because the flight attendant knows perfectly well you didn't pay for these, since they're clearly marked with the name of a different airline that doesn't just HAND OUT headphones for you to keep, so maybe she'll take them away from you and send them back to the other airline, on come on you're just being paranoid, even so maybe you'd better just forget the movie or the in-flight music (static) and thumb through the catalog of miniature airplanes and hundreds of doo-dads all with AERODORK printed on them, but as it turns out, there IS no catalog in the seat pocket in front of you, the only one is in the seat pocket of the seat NEXT to you, which means you run the risk of waking and/or irritating the guy who's sleeping on your shoulder, not really worth it, is it, but after all, they HAVE asked you to close your window for the benefit of those who DO want to watch the movie, but where's the justice in that, after all it's your seat and you have a perfect right to look out the window if you want to, this is NOT a movie theatre, so you leave the window open anyway, not because you want to see what's outside but because it's your little way of getting back at the airline which unceremoniously bumped you from a previous flight because they stupidly overbooked by 90 (ninety) people and then had to tell 50 (fifty) of them to get up and vacate their seats, gee, we're terribly sorry for the minor inconvenience, but we'll give you a free ticket anywhere we fly, but of course you could just as easily end up being bumped from THAT flight, and on and on until you've got hundreds and hundreds (100s + 100s) of free tickets and haven't been able to go on a single (1) flight without being bumped, anyway, that's an exaggeration but it COULD happen, especially the way this airline treats you, so why don't you just show them a thing or two and send back your Frequent Mailpoint card cut in half and take the TRAIN, I'll tell you why, because the train costs just as much and takes 10 times longer, that's why, and besides, like they're really going to care if one (1) of their passengers takes the train instead, why fight it, just take the plane and once, maybe just this once, the plane will take off and land on time, instead of just sitting on the runway for an hour-and-a-half (90m) while they decide if the plane is in good enough condition to take you, and you look out the window and can see the maintenance men standing around shaking their heads, uh-oh, this flight is doomed, but I'd feel too (2) silly getting off the plane in front of everybody now, God, why are they even DEBATING about it, if they're not sure, why are they going to take the chance, after all we've human beings here, well, most of us are anyway except for that couple with the squalling infant, don't they know better than to bring a baby on an airplane, the baby will hate it and will ruin the flight for everybody else, why didn't they just check the damn baby with the baggage, oh, wait a minute — baggage, that's right, you can bring two (2.0) items checked through and one (1.1) carry-on and that's it, and the airline will repay you $100 (one hundred) for every bag lost, but they'll take their own sweet time paying you that $100 (like that's even going to begin to replace ANYTHING in the bag, I bet those airlines just rip off the bags and sell the contents and even if they get around to paying the person $100 for their "lost" (oh-ho) baggage they still make a major profit, I bet that's exactly what they do, son-of-a-gun, I'm going to write a letter to the President of this airline and tell him exactly what I think of his racket, that's just what I'm going to do, I mean what the hell, I've got this whole flight and I can give the letter right to the Flight Attendant to pass directly to the Airline President, but who am I kidding, they'll probably just read it to each other in the galley back there and laugh at me and then throw the letter out, I'm never going to write this letter, I might as well just plug in my illegal headphones and watch the movie).

of the

Da Vinci's Mona Lisa. Venus de Milo. All women of classical beauty, shrouded in mystery, all wearing the same sign: Don't Touch. So it is with our Girls of the Mafia. Our photographer, Len Scap (whom we now refer to around the office as "Three Fingers") learned the hard way that as sexy as these ladies are, they're dedicated to remaining chaste until the knot is tied. And judging from the way they look, they're chaste all over the place!

Luciana Bananas

Lucky Luciana insists that there is no Mafiosi we'd like to say, "We'll show you our evidence if you'll show us yours!" As you can see, she obliged, and we must admit that her evidence is eye-popping. Even so, if she does threaten to put out a contract on us...what's a way to go?

Francesca Alfredo

4-bla, bubba! This hot dish comes to us all the way from Sicily where she says she's involved in "family counseling." We're sure that's "family" with a capital "S." She loves houses (or parts of them anyway), parties, and enjoying gourmet cuisine. We promise to eat everything she puts in front of us...we even lick the platter clean!

Pia Priapus

There always try Godfather's favorite, "spys Paid her a special and refers to family parameter." I remember seeing her in the state when I was a litigant, and at my uncle and cousins and brothers would come in and ask for favors.

Sometimes he wouldn't say anything, he'd just kiss them goodbye when they left. I guess we're a very attractive family, but I had about those accidents. We wouldn't mind being very close to. Q: What's the deal with this?

Isabella Pepper

Spicy Isabella was born in Southern Italy and claims to be 100% American, but no matter how hard she tries to cover it up, her Naples keeps poking through. She loves water skiing, sailing, swimming, and Italian seamen. We're jealous, we wouldn't mind getting into some hot water ourselves.

Sophia Carbonara

Sassy Sophia may be part of a rather large and important family, but she insists she's just a poor, unspoiled young woman...in fact, she adds, "Don't be misled by appearances. My parents are poor, my brothers are poor, the butler is poor, the chauffeur is poor, the groundskeeper is poor, the bodyguards are poor...we're all very, very poor and unspoiled." We wouldn't mind spoiling Sophia just a little bit!

Passionate Pati

knows glamour from the inside-out. Part-time undercover agent, part-time jetsetting entertainer, Pati has a legjob on two of the three most glamorous jobs in the world according to a recent Tenfoot Poll. (The only position of the top three that Pati can't lay claim to is "Software Designer.") Is it any wonder that we chose this leggy, brilliant, multi-talented agent to grace our cover this month?

We found Pati to be as mysterious as she is beautiful, as enigmatic as she is sexy, as enigmatic as she is beautiful. (The words, not ours!) She's currently single — good news, men! — but made several veiled references to a man she called "Larry," who clearly means, or meant, a great deal to her. (For warning boys, that there may be a little competition here!) The relationship is detailed in computerized form in an episode with the unlikely title Lesure Suit Larry 4: The Missing Flippers, but Pati refused to tell us where we could locate this computerable, and not a single software store we contacted had any knowledge of the game. In any case, there were certainly no flippers anywhere to be seen around Pati, who eschews the label "passionate" even though her sensuality pours from her milk from a tree coconut.

As a performer, Pati is a multifaceted one-person lounge act. She sings, she plays piano, she jokes with the crowd. Having entertained in lounges all across the continent throughout Pati's sex got one as well with the ladies as it did with the ladies. Her act was particularly well-received by the owners of a luxurious casino in the South Seas Islands (the fabulous Montecarlo Resort, where she met her former beau in a barbed tale of danger and romance known as Lesure Suit Larry 3: Assassinate Pati in Absence of the Missing Flippers). Pati to Pati, Pati tackled the women in the private lounge of the evil Dr. Hancock, whom some agents will remember as having connections with the KGB before being defeated by an unknown amateur agent.

The earlier connection to the KGB was cause for concern to our Fearless Leader in HQ before it was determined that Pati had been completely uninvolved in Dr. Hancock's secret things (for those interested in reviewing the facts of the case, reference Lesure Suit Larry 2: Looking for Love in Several Wrong Places). Personally, we prefer to go over Pati's dossier over and over again, just to remind ourselves of her outstanding points.

Her induction to the Bureau is a relatively new development in Pati's life. Her established musical career and her well-documented previous ties to organized crime give her a perfect cover. At the moment, she's working to help us eradicate corruption in the music industry in a sting operation based to make the headlines. (For the time being, boys, keep this operation under wraps. "Nuff said?) Meanwhile, she's made headlines around the BLSPT offices as one of the sexiest babes ever to grace our Covergirl.

We salute you, Pati!

COLDFINGER

(The Spy Who Gloved Me)

A True Adventure by Mata Harakiri

I knew it was going to be one of those mornings when I broke a fingernail transmitter trying to pick the lock to the back door of the Guatemalan consulate. I had just finished hurling a string of obscenities in five languages at the offending lock when my compact rang. It was Tomlinson, my secretary and occasional dinner date.

"I thought I told you never to call me here!" I growled into the natural sponge cosmetic applicator.

"Sorry, Harakiri, but the Director wants to see you in his office right away. I think it might have something to do with the Tarantella investigation." I snapped the receiver shut and hurried over to headquarters.

The Director filled me in on the Tarantella case, but I hardly listened; I knew it all by heart anyway. Harry Tarantella was the most wanted gangster on the Director's list. He was up to his jockey shorts in every kind of crime, contamination and corruption this wonderful country of ours had to offer. He made a habit of killing a man every morning before breakfast just to keep in shape. Not only that, but he was 6 foot 2, 180 pounds of pure muscle, better-looking than Tom Selleck and, if rumors were to be believed, built like a brick pizzeria. However, had the Director wanted Harry Tarantella, it was a safe bet I wanted him worse.

"So what do you say, Harakiri? Do you want the job?"

"You want me to get close to Tarantella, is that it?"

"Not just close - real close." He winked as he passed the case files over to my side of the desk. "It's an undercover operation, if you take my measure."

Did I ever. "You know I'll do anything for my country, Mr. Director," I replied, picking up the case files from his desk. "Anything."

"That's the spirit, Harakiri. Stop by the Tech Department for a briefing before you go and see what kind of special gadgets Commander Twit's been cooking up for you."

"We're going to have you equipped with this miniaturized super-heterodyne, charge-coupled transceiver coil," Twit explained when I showed up for my tech briefing. "With this gadget in place, we'll be able to monitor everything Tarantella says while he's with you."

"Looks more like an I.U.D. to me," I replied. "So tell me, Twit, where does it go?"

He's Leisure Suit Larry, the winningest loser in computer game history, maybe in the history of the world (PC Entertainment calls him "one of the truly heroic figures of our time"). And he's back in Al Lowe's latest singles scene set-up, an epic saga of absurdity, ingenuity, and raw, unbridled rejection.

As a consolation prize for his humiliating performance on a TV dating show, Larry wins two weeks at the fabulous La Costa Lotta Spa (first prize one week!). Surrounded by nine smart, savvy, beautiful women, Larry will surely meet Ms. Right. Right? WRONG!

Help Larry overcome all the odds and experience True Love. Save him from dozens of hilariously hopeless encounters. We don't care how you do it, but whatever you do, deliver this male!

SIX TIMES more running gags, atrocious puns, smart-aleck comebacks and hidden jokes than any previous Leisure Suit Larry game (at least according to Al Lowe's contract!).

MORE laughs-per-megabyte than any other computer game on earth. If you don't agree, we will give you a refund. Seriously!

100% non-politically correct humor!

SCREEN AFTER SCREEN of bizarre and uproarious animation.

ABSOLUTELY no rotoscoped farm animals! We thought about it, though.

It's the "Best IBM PC game of 1993" (San Francisco Examiner). "It's a real blast to play" (Strategy Plus). It's prime Leisure Suit Larry, the most laughably loveless loser to ever grace the small Silver Screen.

WARNING: This game portrays adult themes in a completely non-explicit fashion which may offend those looking for the real R-rated stuff.

Leisure Suit Larry 6: Shape Up or Slip Out!

In some ways, a return to the original. With Larry 6, I wanted to provide an area where the player could roam around and see almost anything within the first few minutes of play, and yet provide enough depth of play that the game would challenge most players. No long auto-pilot cartoons. No Passionate Patti to provide political-correctness. No involved heavy plot.

Just more babes, more silly situations to humiliate Larry, and more babes. (Did I mention the babes?)

Be sure to check out the collection of audio files. Feel free to un-Zip them and use them where you wish: Windows sounds, in important documents, etc. Just don't sell them or make up your own weekly radio show.

—A.L.

New Icons

Take

The hand with the red triangle beneath it indicates "Take," as opposed to the other, standard Sierra Hand that indicates "Do" or "Manipulate." Select the "Take" icon whenever you see something you'd like to have. Usually you'll be denied it, but get used to it. After all, you are Leisure Suit Larry!

Zipper

The icon over on the right is the "Zipper" icon. If you don't know what to do with this... you bought the wrong computer game!

Always Visible Inventory Window

No more inventory icon, no more separate inventory window, everything you own is now out in full view at all times. Plus, all the icons work in both the main game window and in the inventory window.

When you have too many objects to fit in the inventory window, scroll arrows appear indicating there are more objects off screen in that direction. The arrows are only there when you need them.

To use an object, select the "Take" icon and click it in the inventory window on the object you want to use. That object becomes your cursor. Click it in the main game window or even on other objects in the inventory window to combine or alter them.

Hot Dots

Every cursor now comes complete with a funny-colored dot to show which pixel is that cursor's "hot spot." No more guessing if you should click the palm of the hand or the index finger or the base of the thumb to do something. Easier gaming... Al Lowe's goal for over a third of a century!

Pull-Down Menus

In a giant leap back to the future, I'm proud to bring back the pull-down menu, last seen in Leisure Suit Larry 3. This is not necessarily due to popular demand, but just because I like 'em! (Besides, with the popularity of Macintosh and Windows, the rest of the world is finally catching up to where Sierra was back in 1985.)

So, if you've been playing games full-time in a cave for the past several years, here's how to use a pull-down menu: Move your mouse to the left end of the game's title bar, hold down the mouse button to see a menu bar filled with choices descend. Keep the button down while sliding the mouse until the choice you want is highlighted, then release the mouse button!

Don't fear, though! I kept in the old familiar key-strokes for all you veteran Sierraheads.

- F1 Help
- F2 Music off (sampled sounds and sound effects stay on)
- F5 Save Game
- F7 Restore Game
- F9 Restart Game
- Ctrl-Q Quit
- Ctrl-C Control Panel

Bodily Function Keys

Since nearly all computer keyboards have function keys these days, and since for the last 10 years Sierra has only used about half of them, I decided to fill the unused ones with horrible, disgusting, repulsive, digitally-sampled sound effects. (Stop groaning; you know it's the first thing you're going to try the next time you play the game!) I'm not going to list them here, but only explain that they're the sounds our programmers thought were the most fun.

Don't try these if you don't have a sound card with a DAC chip. They just won't be funny. But do feel free to use this as your excuse to purchase that sound card you've been wanting anyway!

No Keyboard or Joystick Support

There isn't any! Don't ask. Don't gripe. Don't whine. Keyboards are great for word processing. Joysticks are good for flight sims. Both are worthless in an adventure game! If you don't have a mouse (and you didn't believe the sticker on the outside of the box that said "Mouse Required"), just go buy one! The street price of a mouse is now less than what you paid for this game, and you'll have much more fun playing with one than without one.

To Windows or Not To Windows?

YOUR REWARD for reading this "extensive" manual: check the final disk for a special file called LSL6.SFX.EXE. Just as Nature abhors a vacuum, Al Lowe hates unused disks! So I filled it with lots of .WAV files you may use as you see fit (as long as you don't sell them: see the copyright notice). Enjoy!

It's up to you. We include both DOS and Windows versions on your disks. WinLARRY works just like any other Windows app. Still, there are some bad points to consider with the good.

Pros WinLARRY runs in either a full-screen or a small window. Windows handles your sound card for you. You can quickly hide the game when your boss appears.

Cons We have no control over your sound drivers, so you can't be guaranteed the best possible sound from your base-level sound card. It's always slower. Scrolling pictures aren't as fast and smooth.

Or, try both, then decide.

Tips for Beginning Gamers

While playing the game, pull down the Help menu and select "Interface Help."
Move your cursor around the screen to learn what everything is and what it does.

Explore every scene completely. Take anything you can. Speak to everyone repeatedly. Try every icon on everything in every scene. Try clicking your inventory objects (things you have taken) on each other. Even if it doesn't do what you expected, at least you'll probably get a funny message.

Save your game often, and with different descriptions. Take advantage of our new "Auto-Save" and "Save-O-Matic" features under the Game menu.

Things you may not know...

Pull down all the menus. Try every option. None of them will harm you! Some are even fun.

Clicking the right mouse button cycles through the available cursors. If you have a middle mouse button, it will toggle between the Walk cursor and the previously selected cursor.

The text window at the bottom of the screen contains a scroll-back buffer hold leg recent messages you have heard. You may review it at any time by clicking the arrows. When someone is speaking, the text in the buffer is a different color. Clicking a mouse button stops the audio and "releases" the text.

The Laffer Utilities

Cleverly titled to be a play on "The Norton Utilities," a famous disk utility program known to nearly every computer user on Planet Earth at the time, we outsmarted ourselves by failing to realize that nobody except us knew Leisure Suit Larry's last name was Laffer! Thus nobody caught the pun! Ha, ha, huh? The joke was on us.

Actually released about a year ahead of its time, TLU was passé before most people were even able to use it. It was the first software that lets you "waste time when you should be working." Its slogan was: "Automates everything you do at the office that has nothing to do with work!" It includes clip art, a betting pool printer, a joke database (pre-loaded with 700 of my favorites!), an automatic sign maker that actually works well, and more. It even solves the most often asked question around the office: "Where do you want to go for lunch?"

Leisure Suit Larry's Casino

Crazy Nick was looking for software bargains to foist off, er, that is, "offer to" the public. Following hot on the heels of the successful "Ms. Astro Chicken Collection" from Space Quest, Nick convinced some unsuspecting programmer to slap together all the gambling games I had written for the Larry series and cram them into one disk for less than ten bucks retail. It was a perfect Mother's Day gift.

—A.L.

Softporn Adventure

Softporn was written in 1981 (the Paleolithic period of computing!) for the Apple II computer and is, to this date, the only game Sierra has ever published that has absolutely NO graphics. When Time Magazine published its first column on computers, the photo it ran was the cover of Softporn. When there were only 100,000 Apple II computers in the world, Sierra had sold 25,000 copies of Softporn! It was, to say the least, a phenomenon in the early days of microcomputers.

But, the state of the art then was much different from the state of the art today. It was a "simpler" time (i.e., you have to work lots harder because the computer doesn't!). So, don't expect much in the way of forgiveness or user friendliness here.

—A.L.

SOFTPORN ADVENTURE

This delightful game has more features than most adventures. The computer program creates a fantasy world, complete with objects, different areas, and several new tests and surprises are included. You, the player, have a "pupper" who's identity you adapt for the game. Your objective? Find and seduce I girl!

As in real life, meeting this challenge is not an easy task. It requires money (which you must win at the casino); you must be creative in approaching your women; and there are many dangers to avoid and puzzles to be solved. The subject matter is such that adult males should find this game quite interesting. Others may too—but be forewarned!!!

—over 48K of actual program memory plus another 48K of text (stored on disk)

We've included a demo game of Freddy Pharkas, Frontier Pharmacist for you to play and enjoy. It's now available on CD. If you like it, I hope you'll buy the game. I think it's one of the funniest games ever but unless it sells lots and lots of copies, Sierra won't let me do the sequel (which is even funnier!). Seriously, load this up and see just how great games can be when you hear the voices of professional actors!

From the desk of Larry Laffer

Al Lowe is widely acclaimed for singlehandedly corrupting the computer industry. With his "Leisure Suit Larry" games, Al created the 'adults only' category of computer games.

In the process, he also created a lot of controversy. The State of California introduced a "Leisure Suit Larry" bill, which would have prohibited adult themes in any computer game. Fortunately, legislation died in committee, thanks to the diligence of the software industry (and possibly the legislature's strong demand for a sequel!)

Ask Al to comment on the furor he's created and he'll give you a quick smile and a hearty "Thank you!" before conveniently forgetting the question. It's not the response you'd expect from a former school teacher.

So what was Al's motivation to design "Leisure Suit Larry?" Simple. "I just want to make people laugh."

In truth, Al Lowe can't understand what all the fuss is about. He doesn't think Larry is all that risqué. "Larry is just a ladies-man wannabe." He's equal parts Don Juan and Don Knotts. The result? Larry is every girl's blind date nightmare!

Al stresses that he "just wants to be funny." What if the humor does occasionally come across as "a bit off-color" or "just a little dirty"? Al shrugs, explaining "the world can be a dirty place." Evidently, the world can also appreciate a little dirt, as the Larry games are sold on several continents in several languages and have been featured in such widespread media as Entertainment Tonight, Rolling Stone, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Playboy, Penthouse, The London Financial Times, and more.

All this from a man with a Master's Degree in Education who taught music for fifteen years. He still plays music professionally, although he finds Larry consumes more and more of his attention.

Larry is currently in its fifth installment, which with his typical zany humor, Al has named Leisure Suit Larry 6: Shape Up or Slip Out! The Larry games are one of the best selling computer game series of all time.

Sierra is proud of its contribution to improving the morals of America's youth, not by hiring Al to design computer games, but by keeping him out of public schools.
